

Introduction to Habit

5th—8th Grade Confirmation

As a Pastor I feel that true Christian students should not have to be “required” to attend class, attend church, or attend Sunday School/Bible Study, after all these are what Christians should automatically want to do without asking. Unfortunately, none of these come naturally, our sinful nature is always trying to make excuses why not to get up for church and why food/makeup/music/sleep is more important than God.

Because of this Paul tells us to discipline ourselves in the faith. , “No, I beat my body and make it my slave so that after I have preached to others, I myself will not be disqualified for the prize.” (I Corinthians 9:27). As a result, the requirements given are a way to help start creating discipline in your life. I would pray you would be much more rigid in discipline than this guide. For example, if you are able to attend church more often do so out of joy. The goal is that we would be regular and in the habit of receiving God’s gifts in the Lord’s House.

I pray God's blessings to all of you as you work through this little book. David wisely said, "Teach me, O Lord, to follow your decrees; then I will keep them to the end." I pray that each of you can continue to learn God's Word with me.

In Christ,

Pastor James Travis
